PALM HARBOR LIBRARY PRESENTS AN EXPLOSIVE SUMMER OF FREE FUN!

FAQs

- Can my 7 year-old be in the 9-12 year-old reading club because he's reading at a higher level? NO Reading club ages are based on numbers of years alive on the planet, not on reading levels or interests.
- Can I register my 5 year-old for a program that is for 6-8 year olds? NO Programs are grouped by ages for a reason.
- My child turns 9 in July can I register him for programs for 9-12 year –olds held in June? NO Registration is based on your child's age at the time of registration.
- If a program is full, is there a possibility of getting in as a walk-in that day? YES People on the official waiting list have first dibs, but, if space permits, age-eligible walk-ins are welcome!
- Can parents be in programs labeled "children only?" NO These programs are an opportunity for personal growth and development for your child.
- Can I register my neighbor's children for programs? NO Only the parent or legal guardian can register children for programs.
- Can I send my 4 year-old into a program with my 9 year old? NO Only registered children may enter a program.
- Can my child enter a program late? NO Doors close after 10 minutes and late entries will not be allowed because we will have filled the program with walk-ins.
- Do I need to make staff aware if my child has any special needs? YES at the time of registration. We strive to give each child the attention and care they need. This includes allergies.
